The West Virginia Annual Membership Meeting was held on August 5-7, 2021 at the Greenbrier, White Sulphur Springs, WV.

The meeting began on the Thursday with the WVCA Executive Committee Luncheon meeting to take care of ongoing budgetary and finance issues as well as focusing on Association priorities for the remainder of 2021 and beyond.

On Thursday afternoon, the Association hosted the inaugural meeting of Eastern Coal State Executives, which was organized to enable the States of Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, and Illinois to work closer together on industry priorities, regulatory, as well as public relations and messaging programs. WVCA Board Members attended and U.S. Senator Joe Manchin joined the meeting virtually to stress the importance of coalfield organizations and their political leadership remaining aligned on key issues impacting the industry.

The Members Welcome Reception took place outside during what was a beautiful summer evening on the Chesapeake Bay Room Terrace.

On Friday morning, the Board of Directors and Membership Meeting was held with attendees hearing and participating with a great line up of speakers, chaired by Chris Hamilton, comprising the following:

1. "Welcome" by Heath Lovell, WVCA Chairman of the Board
2. Chris Hamilton, President, and Jason Bostic, Vice President, WVCA
3. Jennifer Granholm, U.S. Energy Secretary (virtually)
4. Craig Blair, WV Senate President
5. Roger Hanshaw, WV House Speaker
6. Riley Moore, WV State Treasurer
7. Harold Ward, WV DEP Secretary
8. Eugene White, WV OMHS&T Director
9. David McKinley, U.S. Congressman
10. Patrick Morrissey, WV Attorney General
